NDA AGM

Studio Kind
Wednesday 7th September 2022

Minutes

Welcome
The members were welcomed to the meeting by Susan Brooklyn-Harris, who gave a brief outline of what had been happening over the last year (a more detailed report was circulated to members in the days prior to the meeting)

It was noted that the plein air sessions had been particularly popular and successful. Members expressed the hope that these would continue to be organized going forward.

Antigone Neaum announced that the recipient of the Eilean Eland Award for 2021 was Natasha Quarmby, who was regrettably unable to attend to receive the award personally.

After thanks for their hard work in keeping NDA going through difficult times, the management Team for 2021 – 2022 stood down, and the members present duly elected the new Team for 2022 - 2023

The new management Team is:

- Howard Porter
- Stella Levy
- Robert S Sumner
- Alison Nicholson
- Penny Rowland Hill

There then followed a short discussion about the new Cultural Strategy for North Devon and Torridge, and the Team emphasized the benefits of NDA involvement, and gave assurances that they would continue to be involved in the `Strategy on behalf of members, while managing the organisation and its various activities.

The meeting closed at 9.00 pm
